In the afternoon a few hundred onlookers were present chiefly engaged in watching the movements of the large force of police on the ground. Only a few racing men were present at the weighing in. A number of bookmakers entered bets without being interfered with by the police. While the races proceeded there were isolated, cries of 'Down with Constans!' but otherwise there was no disorder. Two persons who were made especially prominent by their denunciations of the Minister of the Interior were placed under arrest. The police appeared to be acting under orders to enforce the new anti-cambling. regulations in a mild manner. A report is. current that betting in various forms will again be allowed by the authorities. At the track to day there were no Pari mutual operations. The Temps learns that the Government will reconsider the whole question of betting on horse races.

The receipts of the Antenil Racing So. ciety to-day were only 33,000 francs. against 90 000 france on the corresponding day of last year. The presence of troops at Auteuil was the cause of such merriment that onlockers frequently asked. Are your big guns out ? or, " Why didn't you throw " up redoubts around the course?' An additional compromise is expected, allowing Pari mutuals by direct agreement with the municipal council instead of the Ministry of the Interior. At the same, time the Cabinet meditates submitting a bill to invest the Ministry of Husbandry with power to authorize the opening of racecourses and control their financial arrange.

Paris. March 9.—There was a debate in the Chamber of Deputies to-day on the recent decision to suppress betting. Conane, Minister of the Interior, refused to restore the Pari mutual system.
